A word from the Principal

What an incredible day - Athletic Sports opened with some amazing performances in the 800m with The Terrace very much to the fore.

Then the day developed even further. The feedback from the adults running the events, with the help of The Terrace team of support workers, reflected the efforts of the children helping and participating.

So well done Athletes, but also to those children working at the events who just kept on going and obliging - you are all a credit to the school family.

Then in the cold and with so many of the children cold and worn out - my softball team looked like it may have to default - but no, the children came from the Athletics and played a brilliant game.

Most of the children seem to know that it is a team game and you can't 'pull out' - you turn up even if you don't feel like it. The children really do respect the concept of the team.

One player, Cyress, carrying an injury and unable to run - turned up, played brilliantly on first base, AND batted three times for three home runs (courtesy of Lucy who ran for him).

So well done The Terrace, your special efforts in trying conditions and with many others struggling (including a wee few of our own), you showed that the Athletics Day needs people to respect the event, even to the point as Athletics ran into Softball it was apparent how much the children cared that Alex Primary got a game and made an extra effort to turn up and play.

Thank you.

Good Sort - Congratulations Caleb Ludlow

Caleb, you well and truly show the qualities we look for in a 'Good Sort'.

You are a kind and caring person, who shows respect, understanding and kindness to all those around you. Whenever there is someone who may need assistance or a friendly word, you are there to offer it.

Each day you come to school and give it your all. You make the most of the opportunities that present themselves, and use your initiative to seek out opportunities that will help you grow.

You represent your school with pride and are a role-model for others. We appreciate your genuine, kind and enthusiastic contribution to Room 8 and The Terrace School.

Caleb you should be incredibly proud of your achievements. Well done on being recognised as a Terrace School 'Good Sort'.
